The Dresslers are indebted to the United States for unpaid federal income tax assessments and the statutory additions and interest associated with those assessments in the total amount of $135,973.88 as of November 10, 2008, as set forth in the table below, plus statutory additions and interest accruing since that date.

2. The foreclosure count (26 U.S.C. § 7403) of the United States' amended complaint, filed with this Court on December 21, 2007, with respect to real property located at 303 Jacobs Street, Seekonk, Massachusetts, was dismissed without prejudice pursuant to a sixty day settlement order. (Docket no. 33.) The United States agrees not to seek to reopen this action with respect to that foreclosure count, but retains the right to bring an action for the foreclosure of federal tax liens against that property in the future.
